ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL, (Late Mansion House.) North Market Street, 2d door below the Square.

J. GILBERT having taken the above stand for a number of years, begs leave to inform the public of that fact, and say to them that the house has been newly painted from basement to attic, and new and complete furniture throughout. The subscriber knowing full well the need of a first class modern hotel in Nashville, and being in a philanthronic mood, has made Nashville, and being in a philanthropic mood, has made every exertion to come up to the wants of the public, and flatters himself he has succeeded. His table will at all times be furnished with the best this and foreign markets afford, and he pledges himself to make every body contented and at home who will favor him with Carriages and omnibuses will run regularly to and from the St. Nicholas to Steamboats and Railroads. Trusty Porters always in attendance at the depot to re-ceive checks for baggage, thus obviating the difficulty of delay.
